

Exercise 1

Choose the correct option for each gap.

1 I'd love to _____ her better, she seems really interesting.

- A.get to know
- B.get on
- C.hang out with
- D.fall out with

2 My brother and I _____ well despite our different personalities.

- A.propose
- B.hang out
- C.get on
- D.keep in touch

3 On weekends, I usually _____ with my friends at the local coffee shop.

- A.have a crush
- B.break up
- C.hang out
- D.fall out

4 Even though we live in different cities now, we always _____.

- A.get on
- B.keep in touch
- C.propose
- D.fall out

5 In high school, I _____ on my math teacher.

- A.had a crush
- B.broke up
- C.fell out
- D.lost touch

6 He decided to _____ to his girlfriend during their vacation in Greece.

- A.get to know
- B.keep in touch
- C.break up
- D.propose

7 After many arguments, they finally decided it was best to _____.

- A. break up
- B. keep in touch
- C. fall out
- D. hang out

8 When Andrea discovered her husband was _____ with a coworker, she divorced him.

- A. falling out
- B. getting to know
- C. proposing
- D. having an affair

9 After graduation, I unfortunately _____ with most of my college friends.

- A. fell out
- B. got to know
- C. broke up
- D. lost touch

10 I _____ with my best friend over a disagreement about money.

- A. fell out
- B. kept in touch
- C. broke up
- D. hung out

Exercise 2

Choose the most suitable option to complete each sentence. You can use each option ONLY ONCE.

1 John is my . We are in a romantic relationship and we live together.

2 I have a with someone I met at the bookstore.

3 Norma is my . We've known each other since we were kids. She's like a sister to me.

4 My , John, helped me complete the project before the deadline.

5 I don't like . I want to know the person I'm going to go out with.

6 The held hands as they walked through the park.

7 My is the best. I'm so happy I married her.

8 I ran into an old at the grocery store, but we didn't talk much.

9 At first, it was very awkward to bump into my on the street after the divorce.

10 My and I take turns cleaning the apartment every week.

Exercise 3

Complete the text using words from the box.

break up – close friends – crush – date – flatmates – husband – go out

– got married – got on – proposed

Anna and Jamie had been 1 since childhood. Their bond was unbreakable, and everyone admired how well they 2. They became 3 during university, sharing an apartment with two other students.

In their first year of university, Anna went on a 4 with one of her classmates and she started to 5 with him. Jamie, however, felt jealous and realized that his feelings for Anna were deeper than just friendship. He had a 6 on her, although he kept this to himself and maintained a façade of normalcy.

Several months later, Anna decided to 7 with her new boyfriend. When Jamie asked her about her reasons, she admitted having feelings for him – Jamie. He was astonished by this revelation and he then confessed his own feelings for Anna. They embarked on a romantic relationship.

After their graduation, Jamie 8 to Anna, and they 9. Today, they are happily married as 10 and wife.

Exercise 4

Match the sentences/pictures with the terms.

affair	A _____ date is a date with a person you have never met before.
close	Your _____ friends are people you spend a lot of time with and share personal matters.
blind	Her husband is having an _____. It means he is having a relationship with someone else.
go out	When you _____, you ask the other person to marry you.
colleague (or 'co-worker' or 'workmate')	They have been _____ ing _____ for six months. It means they have been dating for six months.
propose	A _____ is a person you work with. You can also say co-worker or workmate.