

USED TO, BE USED TO, GET USED TO

Choose used to, be used to, get used to to complete each sentence.

1. At first, I was really nervous about driving in London, but now I have _____.

2. I don't think I'll ever _____ driving on the right. It's so strange!

3. X: Ima works very hard.

Y: Well, she _____ working hard. She grew up in a very poor family.

4. Udin is Indonesian. He _____ to speaking English in the office.

5. The smell of fish is awful, but you'll _____ it after a couple of months on the job.

6. There are some things in this life that you'll never _____.

USED TO, BE USED TO, GET USED TO

Choose used to, be used to, get used to to complete each sentence.

7. I've just bought an Apple computer, and I think it will take me some time to _____ to the new operating system.

8. When I was a little, _____ I dress up for Halloween, but not anymore.

9. Two years ago, the students _____ have four hours a week of English class, but now they have five hours.

10. After nine years in Indonesia, I can say that now I _____ living in this hot weather. I don't mind anymore.

11. Inara has never worn high heels, but now she started working as a model so she needs to _____ wearing them.

12. We _____ more often before you changed job. You are so busy now.

