UNIT 1 MAKING CONNECTIONS 4

1. Read and complete the sentences with suitable words/ phrases:

In Colombia, in formal situations women kiss_____ on the_____ when they meet while men _____ hands. When meeting family members, women often hug or kiss, men shake hands or hug.

In China, you may _____your head or _____ when you greet someone.

In Thailand, people don't kiss or hug when they meet someone. You greet friends and colleagues with a gesture called ''wai''. You _____your hands together and _____ your head. The tips of your _____ should touch your chin for a friend and your nose for someone older than you.

In Bulgaria, the most common way to show agreement and say '' yes'' is to _____your head from side to side.

When we see a friend, we often _____ our hands at them.

2. Rewrite the sentences using Possessive ('s / s'):

Our science teachers names are Mr. Ford and Mrs. Smith.

_____

My parents apartment is above their shop.

_____

James is Liam and Anna son.

_____

We sometimes have brunch at my friend father house.

_____

These are Kevin and Jess dog.

_____

Is this the famous actress house?

_____

Are these Claras bag? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Read the following text and complete it with the FAMILY VOCABULARY you've learned in UNIT 1:

Last weekend, my family organized a big reunion where all our _____—all my aunts, uncles, cousins, and other family members—came together. I met my _____, the daughter of my uncle, whom I hadn't seen for years, and we quickly caught up about school and hobbies. My uncle also came with his _____brother, who looks exactly like him and even acts like him.

My _____, the oldest people in our family, were the happiest people there. They were surrounded by all their children and grandchildren, and they told us stories about our _____, reminding us that we are part of a long family history. They said one day we would also become ancestors to our own _____, who would continue the family line.

In my immediate family, I'm not an only child; I have one _____, my younger brother, who always makes me laugh. My cousin, however, is an only child, and she sometimes feels lonely, even though her parents give her lots of love.

I love to go to family gatherings as they remind me how important it is to stay connected with both close and distant relatives. They strengthen our bonds, help us learn from the past, and prepare us to pass on love and traditions to future generations.

4. Complete the following PAST SIMPLE and PRESENT PERFECT sentences:

_____ you _____ (find) your keys yet?

What _____she _____(do) when she saw the mouse?

_____their cousin ever _____(be) to Europe?

I haven't cycled since I _____my nose. (break)

When my aunt ____(be) young, she _____(not have) a lot of friends.

They _____(live) in that house for a few years, then they moved to a bigger one in 2012.

_____you _____(have) dinner with Tom last night?

My sons _____(not take) part in any different competitions this year.

Keith (not leave) _____her key chain at Tom's. She left it at my restaurants.

LIVEWORKSHEETS