

YEAR 6 Unit 6 How it is made?

Fill in the blanks with the participle tense for the verbs given.

Process of Making Origami

First, a square piece of paper is _____ (take). Then, the paper is _____ (fold) in half to make a triangle. After that, the corners are folded to the top. Next, the paper is _____ (open) and folded again into smaller shapes. Slowly, wings are _____ (pull) out, and the head is _____ (shape). Finally, the paper crane is _____ (complete) and can be _____ (decorate).

Process in Passive Voice - Making Batik

First, a piece of cloth is _____ (choose) and _____ (wash). Then, patterns are _____ (draw) on the cloth with hot wax. After that, the cloth is _____ (dip) into dye and the colours are _____ (absorb). Later, the wax is _____ (remove) by heating the cloth in hot water. Finally, the batik is _____ (dry) and the beautiful design can be _____ (see).

2. Email to Cousin - invite to join a batik-making activity

if bring is removed are drawn is dyed creative next

Hi Aisyah,

I hope you are doing well. I want to invite you to join me for a batik-making activity next weekend. The process is very interesting because patterns _____ with wax, then the cloth _____ in different colours. After the wax _____, the design appears clearly. It is fun, _____, and we can even _____ home our own batik cloth. Please let me know _____ you can come.

Best wishes,
Amira