

DIESEL ENGINE MAINTENANCE

Choose the correct option and identify the verb tense of each sentence.

Does/Do the companies finish/finishes the scheduled diesel engine maintenance on time?

They have/has often replace/replaced worn-out parts and tightened/tighten bolts carefully.

He have/has took/take/taken the engine apart yesterday.

Had he wrote/written the maintenance report.

She is going to checked the oil level later.

Will the mechanic has/have completed/complete the engine inspection by noon!/?

They were/will checks/checked/checking the coolant level during the inspection last week.

The technicians will have/has been repairs/repared/repairing the engine for two hours by noon.

He don't/didn't/doesn't monitors/monitored/monitor/monitoring the engine temperature properly.

He haven't/hasn't never/always check/checked the oil level before starting the engine.

She gave he/his/him the maintenance report yesterday/tomorrow.

She are/is usually works/work/working with our/us on the engine repairs