B. Prediction:

Look at the title "How do I get there?" What do you think the story will be about?

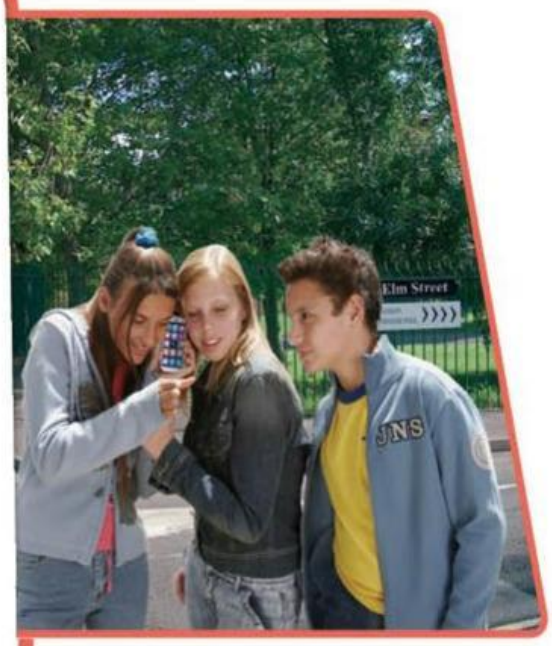

1. The story will be about some teenagers who find a lost mobile phone and decide what to do with it.
2. The story will be about giving directions in a city to help someone find a place.
3. The story will be about friends arguing about whether to keep or return a lost mobile phone.
4. The story will be about how people sometimes lose their mobiles and need help from others to get them back.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

II. While-reading

Read the dialogue carefully.

Phil OK, girls. See you later.
Nat Hey look! A mobile!
Julie What are we going to do with it?
Phil It's really cool! How about keeping it?
Julie What? No way!
Nat Give it to me! Why don't we look at the phone numbers in it and call someone?
Agh! It's ringing!
Phil Go on, answer it!
Nat Er... Hello?
Sam Hi, my name's Sam. Have you got my mobile?
Nat Um... Yes, my name's Natalie. I found it in the street.
Sam That's great! Where are you?
Can I come and get it?
Nat I'm in Elm Street.
Sam I'm not from around here. I'm at the station.
How do I get there?
Nat It isn't far. Go up Station Road and turn right at the traffic lights. Then take the second turning on the left. I think there's a newsagent's there.
Sam So, I turn right there.
Nat No, not right. Left! Then go straight on and turn right at the bookshop. That's Elm Street.
Sam Oh, OK.
Nat I'm outside the chemist's. It's on the right, opposite a small park.
Sam Thanks, I'm coming straightaway. Bye.
Phil He's very lucky we found it.
Julie Not lucky, silly. Only silly people lose their mobiles.
Nat Well, I'm late now. Can I use your mobile to call my mum, Julie?
Julie Yeah! Um... er... Where's my mobile?
