NORTHVILLE

I live in a small village called Northville. There are about 2,000 people here. I love the village because it is very quiet and life is slow and easy. The village is always clean; people look after it with great care. The air is always clean, too. People are much friendlier here than in a city because everyone knows the others, and if someone has a problem, there are always people who can help. There are only a few things that I don't like about Northville. One thing is that we haven't got many things to do in the evening; we haven't got any cinemas or theaters. The other thing is that people always talk about others, and everyone knows what everyone is doing. But I still prefer village life.
