

Fast Fashion & Its Impact

Click on the picture to watch the video, then answer the questions below :

1. Global Comprehension – Level B1-B2

- Click on True or False

Clothing sales are stable every year. True False

The number of times clothes are worn has decreased. True False

The fashion industry uses more water than aviation. True False

H&M and Inditex are the main European fast fashion companies. True False

- Multiple Choice

How many liters of water does it take to make one cotton shirt?

- a) 700 b) 2,700 c) 7,600

By 2030, the market size is expected to reach:

- a) 95 million pounds b) 222 million pounds c) 500 million pounds

Detailed Comprehension – Level B2

- Fill in the boxes with facts or figures :

Clothing sales doubled from to billion units a year.

92 million tons of waste are produced every year.

The industry produces % of global wastewater.

It takes liters of water to produce jeans.

The industry is responsible for about % of global carbon emissions.

