3. "Should cellphones be allowed in school classrooms?" Write a persuasive essay supporting your view. You can use the given guiding questions as reference for your essay.

1. Introduction & Thesis

1. What is an interesting way to start? (fact, question, or short story about cell phones in school)
2. What is your thesis statement? (State clearly whether cell phones should or should not be allowed in classrooms.)

2. Body Paragraphs – Reasons & Evidence

4. What is your first strong reason for your opinion?
5. What facts, examples, or personal experiences can you use to support this reason?
6. What is your second strong reason?
7. What facts, examples, or personal experiences can you use to support this reason?

3. Counterargument & Rebuttal

10. What might people who disagree with you say? (For example: phones are distracting.)
11. Why might that point sound convincing at first?
12. How can you refute it (show why your argument is stronger)?

4. Conclusion

13. How can you restate your thesis in new words?
14. What is the most important message you want your reader to remember?
15. Can you end with a “call to action” — telling your reader what they should do, think, or believe?
