WORKSHEET 7

Nominal sentence of Simple Past in Fable

PART 1 : Underlined the 12 sentences that reflect the character's feeling

The Turtle who wanted to fly

Once, there was a turtle who always watched the birds flying in the sky.

He was amazed by their beauty and speed.

He felt sad because he could not fly.

Every day, he was quiet and thoughtful.

One day, the turtle asked a bird for help.

The bird was surprised but wanted to be kind.

So, two birds held a stick in their beaks, and the turtle bit the stick in the middle.

They flew high into the sky. The turtle felt excited and proud.

But soon, he became proud and started to speak.

"I am flying!" he shouted.

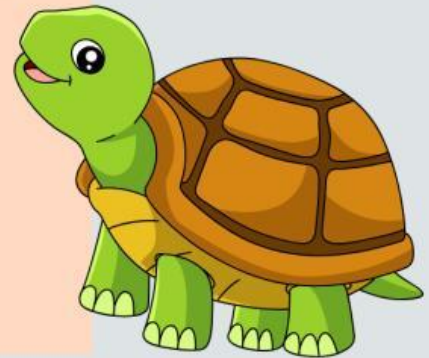

When he opened his mouth, he fell.

The turtle was hurt, and he felt embarrassed.

The birds were sad too.

From that day, the turtle became more careful.

He was still curious, but now he was also wise.
