

Exercise 1. For each question, choose the correct answer. You will hear Jake and his sister Ava talking about their new house.

Ava: So, Jake, what do you think of the new house Mum and Dad have decided to buy?

Jake: I like it, Ava. The kitchen isn't as _____ as in our old one, but I'm happy the living room isn't _____ and it's much more comfortable. But we need to tidy the garden.

Ava: I know. Anyway, the house is in a good _____. I probably won't use the library near us to do my schoolwork, but my room's got great _____ of the park. I'm just sorry we're so _____ from the river.

Jake: Me too. But at least the house is easy to _____. It's so unusual. I know it's not the only one in the street painted _____.

Ava: And they're all made of _____.

Jake: But they _____ got red roofs.

Ava: True.

Jake: So, will Mum buy you anything for your room? She's getting me a new _____ Ava: Well, she's already got me a nice _____, but I need an _____ clock for the mornings.

Jake: Right. Well, about getting to school every day, Mum's offered to _____ us, but I think we should _____.

Ava: The bus stop is quite far from here, so, OK.
