QUESTION MAKING! PRESENT PERFECT

Read the following texts and decide if they were good or bad experiences.

_____ CONCERT EXPERIENCE:

I have gone to many concerts, but last year I have had one of the worst experiences.
I have waited for hours outside the stadium, and the band has arrived late.
People have pushed and shouted, and I have lost my phone in the crowd.
The sound has also been terrible, so I haven't enjoyed the music.

_____ CONCERT EXPERIENCE:

I have also had some amazing concert experiences. I have seen my favorite singer twice, and both shows have been incredible.
I have sung along with thousands of fans, and I have taken great photos.
The artist has even signed my T-shirt after the concert and I have even talked to her for some minutes. It has been one of the happiest moments of my life.

Use the underlined information to create questions about the texts:

1 .....

2.....

3 .....

4.....

5.....

6.....

7.....

8.....

How about you?

1. Have you ever waited for hours outside a stadium?
2. Have you ever lost your phone at a concert?
3. Have you ever seen your favorite singer live?
4. Have you ever sung with thousands of fans?
5. Has an artist ever signed something for you?

Rewrite the questions with HAVE YOU EVER. Remember to change the verb into its past participle form.

Did you ever go to a concert alone?

_____

Did you ever eat food at a music festival?

_____

Did you ever see a famous band live?

_____

Did you ever take photos of a singer?

_____

Did you ever break your phone at a concert?

_____

Did you ever meet an artist after a show?

_____

Did you ever sing with a big crowd?

_____

Did you ever write about a concert in your journal?

_____

DID YOU EVER + verbo base
Se usa en Pasado Simple.
Pregunta por un momento específico en el pasado.

- Did you ever go to a concert last year?

(¿Fuiste alguna vez a un concierto el año pasado?)

HAVE YOU EVER + participio pasado
Se usa en Presente Perfecto.
Pregunta por experiencias de la vida (sin tiempo exacto).

- Have you ever gone to a concert in your life?

(¿Has ido alguna vez a un concierto en tu vida?)

LIVEWORKSHEETS