

Reading Time!

I love My Family

By April S. Campeña

My family is precious to me,
I love them so dearly.
My hardworking father,
Whom I admire so much.
My patient and loving mother,
Kisses and lots of hugs,
Are what we give her.
My brother, sister, and I,
Together we eat and play.
We run around and fly kites,
On sunny and windy days.
We sing songs and share toys,
All these things we do, and so much more,
My family gives me such great joy!

Checking Your Understanding

Answer the following questions based on the poem.

1. How were the father and mother described in the poem?

2. What does the writer like to do with his or her brother and sister?

3. What are the activities you like doing with your family?

4. How do you feel about the activities that you do with your family? Why?

5. How do you show your love for your family members?

Exercise 1

Circle (O) the correct demonstrative pronoun to complete the sentence.

1. (These, Those) people are new to the area.
2. (This, That) place is taken already.
3. (This, That) train over there is big.
4. (This, That) is the first one to arrive.
5. (These, Those) are the pencils I prefer.

Exercise 2

Underline the demonstrative pronoun in each sentence.

1. That is the car I would like to buy.
2. These are delicious foods!
3. This is my favorite dress.
4. Would you like some of these?
5. Those years at the beach were the best times of my life.

Exercise 3

Match the word on the left with its correct definition on the right.

That

people, places or things at a distance

These

people, places or things close by

This

people, places or things close by

Those

people, places or things at a distance