

MAKING QUESTION IN A PAST PROGRESSIVE FORM AND GIVING SHORT ANSWERS

Change each statement into a question and give short answers in an affirmative and negative form.

Example: I was doing the homework at half past seven.

Question: WERE YOU doing the homework at half past seven?

Short answer: affirmative Yes, I was Negative No, I wasn't

1. He was sleeping at half past six this morning.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

2. They were eating at five past two.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

3. She was talking on the phone at nine o'clock last night.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

4. It was raining yesterday.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

5. I was attending my zoom class at ten past ten this morning.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

6. I was listening to the teacher.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

7. She was reading a book.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative

8. Tom was running in the park at quarter to six.

Question:

Short answer: affirmative
negative