

Unit 1 Beauty

1. What is Cameron Russell's main message in this talk?

- A) Beauty always leads to confidence.
- B) Modeling is a superficial but fulfilling career.
- C) Society rewards physical beauty, but it's not a reflection of who someone truly is.
- D) Fashion is an empowering industry for women.

2. When Russell refers to "image is powerful, but also image is superficial," what does she mean?

- A) Images are more important than actions.
- B) Appearance affects how we are treated, but doesn't reveal our true selves.
- C) Superficiality is the goal of the modeling industry.
- D) People who look good always feel confident.

3. Russell believes that being a model makes her more likely to be heard and respected. True / False

4. Open Question—Why does Russell describe herself as having "won the genetic lottery"?

5. Fill in the Blank – Russell says, "I was scouted to be a model when I was _____ years old."

6. Why does Russell say, "I am insecure"?

- A) To suggest that even models suffer from poor health.
- B) To emphasize that external beauty does not guarantee self-confidence.
- C) To gain sympathy from the audience.
- D) To express dissatisfaction with the modeling industry.

7. How would you describe the tone of her talk?

- A) Humorous and dismissive
- B) Bitter and aggressive
- C) Honest and reflective
- D) Detached and academic

8. Short Answer –According to Russell, how does society treat attractive people differently?

9. Open Question –What lesson from this talk could be useful for someone struggling with self-image?