

Alan

1. The incident was in the area where people look to see the sun rise.
2. The air pollution was caused by large structures for getting oil under the sea or the ground.
3. The smoke from the oil rig is not good for human's health.
4. The chemical substances do nothing to the all the plants and living creatures under the ocean.
5. They are creating an area with a lot of windmills.
6. The energy created by windmills is good for the environment.

Jane

1. The energy that cannot be produced or replaced again has increased the amount of carbon dioxide.
2. Many houses are put under the water from the flood.
3. The wires to transfer electricity could still be used.
4. Due to the mountainous geography, a lot of earth and rock falls down the slopes of mountains.
5. People in the affect area have not received any help.

Nathan

1. The land where garbage is keep has too much waste.
2. The water flow is not clean any more.
3. Fortunately, the place where many animals live are still safe.
4. Young volunteers has built a large public container where people can throw their plastic bottles.