Leisure time is simply free time when we don't have any specific things to do. But it doesn't mean we waste it. There are many useful things we can do to make our free time more meaningful. Some people might watch TV or hang out with friends, which is fine. However, there are also more productive hobbies to enjoy.

Sara, for example, loves painting. It's one of her favorite hobbies. Ever since she was a child, she dreamed of becoming a painter. That dream is still alive today. Whenever she has free time, she draws different things and enjoys every moment of it.

We all should have a few hobbies that help us relax and grow at the same time. You could try gardening, reading books, playing music, fishing, or even learning something new. These activities not only make your free time enjoyable, but they also improve your skills and creativity.

In short, leisure time should be quality time that helps us feel better and live a more balanced life.
