Lan: Hey Minh, have you ever joined any school clubs?

Minh: Yeah, I'm in the Art Club. It's really fun and helps me relax after studying. What about you?

Lan: I'm thinking of joining the English Speaking Club. I heard that school clubs help students learn better by interacting with others.

Minh: That's true. Activities in clubs let us share our hobbies, make new friends, and even improve our social skills.

Lan: I agree! My teacher said joining a club can also help us build confidence and leadership.

Minh: Exactly. At our school, teachers try to balance study with extracurricular activities so students don't feel too stressed.

Lan: That sounds great. I sometimes feel that too much homework makes me tired, so joining a club might help.

Minh: Yes, and our school creates many clubs to match different interests—like music, science, sports, and drama. You'll find one that suits you!

Lan: Thanks, Minh! I'll definitely sign up for one this week.
