Bun bo Hue is one of the most popular and beloved dishes in Viet Nam, originally from Hue – the old capital city in the central region. This special noodle soup is made with rice vermicelli (a thin form of noodle called bun) and slices of tender beef. Nowadays, bun bo Hue is found in restaurants and street stalls all over the country, enjoyed at any time of the day, from breakfast to late-night snacks. What makes it unique is its distinctive balance of spicy, salty, and sweet flavours. To prepare its fragrant broth, cooks slowly simmer beef bones and shank with lemongrass, shrimp paste, sugar, and spicy chili oil for hours. Some versions include ox tail, pork knuckle, crab cakes, and fresh herbs for extra richness. Bun bo Hue is not only delicious but also a proud symbol of Vietnamese cuisine, representing the flavours and traditions of Central Viet Nam.

WRITING EXAMPLE

We take part in many outdoor activities at school, but my favourite is planting vegetables in the school garden every Friday afternoon. First, we prepare the soil and plant seeds. Then we water them and remove the weeds. This activity is useful because it makes the garden green and provides fresh vegetables for our canteen. I feel happy and relaxed when working with my friends in the fresh air.
