

Part A: Understanding Conjunctions

Read the sentences carefully. Underline the conjunction in each sentence.

1. I wanted to go swimming, but it started to rain.
2. She likes apples and oranges.
3. I stayed home because I was feeling sick.
4. He wanted to buy the toy, so he asked his mom for money.
5. I could go to the park, or I could stay at home.
6. She was tired, yet she finished her homework.
7. We cannot go out, for it is too late.
8. He read a book while waiting for the bus.
9. I didn't eat the cake, nor did I drink the soda.
10. Although it was raining, we went to the market.
11. I have been studying a lot since Monday.

Part B: Choosing the Right Conjunction

Fill in the blank with a suitable conjunction from the list.

and, but, so, while, for, nor, or, yet, although, because, since

1. I wanted to go to the party, _____ I had too much homework.
2. She is very smart, _____ she sometimes forgets her homework.
3. We can watch a movie, _____ we can play a game.
4. He was very tired, _____ he continued working.
5. I didn't like the food, _____ I ate it anyway.
6. They went for a walk _____ it was sunny outside.
7. I can't eat peanuts, _____ can my brother.
8. I stayed home _____ I had a cold.
9. He was reading a book _____ listening to music.
10. I have been learning French _____ last year.

Part C: Correct the Sentences

Some sentences have missing or wrong conjunctions. Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. I wanted to go swimming, so it rained.
2. She likes apples, yet bananas.
3. He was tired, and he did not go to school.
4. I did not eat the cake or drink the juice.