Greetings from Prague

I'm having a great time in Prague. There's so much to see, for example, Prague (1) Castle / View. A prince first built it in the 9th century, but it's much bigger today than in the past. Now there are many other (2) corners / buildings, including homes for royal servants and churches. My tour of St Vitus (3) Cathedral / Roundabout included entry to its 100-metre-high (4) port / tower. People must walk up 287 steps, but it's worth it. The (5) tunnel / view from the top is amazing! Right now, I'm relaxing in a café in the old (6) town square / car park. It dates back to the 12th century, and it's the centre of historic Prague. Around it, there are colourful homes, shops and churches in different styles of (7) architecture / traffic lights. It's beautiful!
