1. The witness gave a very _____ account of the events, so the jury believed her.

A) phony
B) believable
C) fishy

---

2. His excuse for being late seemed _____; he had photos to prove it.

A) well-founded
B) dubious
C) misleading

---

3. The email looked _____; it had grammatical errors and asked for personal information.

A) credible
B) iffy
C) convincing

---

4. The idea that aliens built the pyramids is pretty _____ to most historians.

A) far-fetched
B) plausible
C) well-founded

---

5. The magician's trick was so _____ that the audience thought it was real.

A) phony
B) convincing
C) dubious

---

6. It's entirely _____ that we'll have a storm tonight based on the weather report.

A) misleading
B) conceivable
C) phony

---

7. The report looked _____ at first glance, but it turned out to be completely false.

A) credible
B) fishy
C) far-fetched

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. There was something _____ about his sudden generosity—it didn't feel right.

A) fishy
B) well-founded
C) believable

---

9. Her statistics were clearly _____; they were twisted to support her argument.

A) plausible
B) misleading
C) conceivable

---

10. The document was exposed as a _____ forgery, not an authentic artifact.

A) phony
B) convincing
C) credible

LIVEWORKSHEETS