MODAL VERBS: MIGHT, CAN'T & MUST

Activity 1: Complete the sentences using "might," "can't" or "must."

1. You _____ wear a helmet when riding a bike.
2. He _____ be at home because the door is locked.
3. I _____ go to the park tomorrow, but I'm not sure.
4. They _____ be tired after the long trip.

Activity 2: Write sentences using "might," "can't," & "must."

1. (A possibility you have)

_____.

2. (Something that is definitely true)

_____.

3. (A rule or law)

_____.

4. (A guess about someone)

_____.

Activity 3: Choose the correct sentences.

1. You must go to bed early on weekdays.
2. She might be at the party tonight.
3. He can't swim, he's afraid of water.
4. I must to study for the test.

Activity 4: Complete the sentences using might, can't or must.

1. You _____ wear a helmet when riding a bike.
2. He _____ be at home now because the lights are off.
3. I _____ go to the party tomorrow, but I'm not sure.
4. They _____ be very tired after the trip.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 5: Order the words to make sentences.

1. (might / rain / later / it)

_____.

2. (must / you / your / homework / do)

_____.

3. (can't / be / he / at / school)

_____.

4. (might / come / she / to / the / party)

_____.

Activity 6: Read and choose (F) for False or (T) for True.

1. You must wear a seatbelt in the car. ( )
2. It can't be sunny at night. ( )
3. She might be late today. ( )
4. I must to go to school tomorrow. ( )

LIVEWORKSHEETS