

TOO/ENOUGH

Complete with too and the adjectives given

difficult	expensive	fast	heavy	hot
late	long	small	tired	young

- 1 A This is a size 10.
B It's _____. Can I have a size 12, please?
- 2 You are only 15. You are _____ to drive.
- 3 A Why didn't you buy those jeans?
B They were 150 Euros. They were _____.
- 4 I can't do this exercise. It's _____.
- 5 A Did you like the film?
B No, it was _____. It lasted three hours.
- 6 A Why don't we go to the cinema?
B It's _____ now. The film starts in ten minute.
- 7 We love going to Morocco, but we never go in summer. It's _____.
- 8 Slow down: you're driving _____.
- 9 A Are you going out tonight?
B No, I'm _____. I want to go to bed.
- 10 I can't carry that suitcase. It's _____.

Complete with enough and the adjectives given

big	clever	smart	good	long
old	rich	strong	tall	warm

- 1 There are 60 students on the course. This room isn't _____.
- 2 You can't wear jeans for the job interview: they're not _____.

TOO / ENOUGH

3 I'd like to visit New Zealand, but my holiday is only one week: it's not _____.

4 You can't go on holiday with your friends. You're only thirteen. You aren't _____.

5 We can't buy this house. We're not _____.

6 I can't get the book on the top shelf: I'm not _____.

7 We can't go to the beach today: it's not _____.

8 That box is very heavy. I can't carry it: I'm not _____.

9 Patrick can't win the tennis match: he isn't _____.

10 Martin can't get into Cambridge University: he isn't _____.

Underline the correct alternatives

1 You spend too many / too much hours in front of the TV.

2 Martha spends too many / too much money.

3 I can't come on holiday with you: I've got too many / too much work.

4 There's too many / too much violence on TV.

5 Sandra eats too many / too much cakes: it's not good for her.

6 I don't like the party: there are too many / too much people.

7 The test isn't difficult: you worry too many / too much.

8 Of course, you can't sleep at night: you drink too many / too much coffee.

9 You didn't pass the exam because you made too many / too much mistakes.

10 I don't like this course: there are too many / too much students.

TOO/ENOUGH

Complete with too, too much or too many.

- 1 These trousers are _____ short: you can't wear them.
- 2 I think that footballers earn _____.
- 3 The teacher always gives us _____ homework.
- 4 You bought _____ apples: we only need two for the cake.
- 5 I don't like this soup: there's _____ salt in it.
- 6 George can't come to the cinema with us: he's _____ busy.
- 7 Tessa didn't go to school because she was _____ ill.
- 8 I receive _____ emails every day: I can't answer all of them.
- 9 A lot of students didn't pass the exam: it was _____ difficult.
- 10 You buy _____ clothes: you don't really need them.

