GE9 UNIT 2 WELL-BEING 3

1. Complete the following sentences using the appropriate adjectives:

furious	in a bad mood	depressed	worried	ecstatic	apprehensive
terrified	delighted	thrilled	anxious	Mixed up	miserable
annoyed	frightened	embarrassed	upset	confused	A bit down

She looks _____. She must have been waiting for an important medical test result.

He's _____. He might have been kept waiting for over an hour.

She seems _____. She must have been asked to perform on stage for the first time.

They look _____. They must have received great news about their university acceptance.

She looks_____. She must have won the competition she trained so hard for.

He looks _____. He must have mixed up the train schedule and missed the right train.

She looks _____. She might have been struggling with loneliness for a long time.

He looks _____. His favorite football team must have lost yesterday's match.

She's _____. She must have forgotten the words while speaking in class.

He's _____. Someone must have scratched his brand-new car.

She looks _____. She must have seen a large spider in her room.

He looks _____. He must have broken up with his partner recently.

Don't talk to her. She's _____ now. She might have had an argument with Jake this morning.

He seems _____. He must have confused two completely different people.

She's _____. She must have been chosen to represent her school in the national contest.

He looks _____. He must have heard strange noises outside late at night.

She's _____. Her friends can't have invited her to the party without telling her.

He looks _____. He must have misplaced his passport before the flight.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Read the situation and write a sentence using the structure must/ might / could/ can't + have + V3:

Anna studied very hard last term. (must) → She must have passed her English exam.

Anna came to class looking very tired and almost fell asleep during the lesson. (must)

_____

The classroom window was broken when we arrived in the morning. (might)

_____

Lisa didn't bring her homework, but she said she had worked on it the night before. (can't)

_____

Several students missed the bus to school. (could)

_____

Emma didn't say a word in class, even though she usually talks a lot. (can't)

_____

When you walked into the kitchen, the smell of cookies was strong, but the tray was empty. (might)

_____

Sarah's phone battery was at 100% in the morning, but by lunchtime, it was completely dead. (must)

_____

Tom said he cleaned his room, but there are clothes all over the floor. (can't)

_____

The basketball bounced into the library, and later, a book was found torn. (could)

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS