

READING COMPREHENSION

The Lost Necklace

Maria has always loved her grandmother's old necklace. It has been in the family for generations, and she has worn it on every special occasion. But today, something strange has happened. Maria has lost it.

She has searched for the entire house. She has looked under the bed, behind the sofa, and even inside the washing machine. Her brother has helped her too, but they haven't found anything.

"I have never felt so worried," Maria says. "This necklace has meant so much to me."

Just as she is about to give up, her phone rings. It's her friend Ana.

"Maria! I have found your necklace in my bag. You dropped it when you visited me yesterday!"

Maria has never felt so relieved. She thanks Ana and promises to be more careful next time.

1. Choose the sentences in present perfect.

Maria has always loved her grandmother's old necklace.

I have never felt so worried

I have found your necklace in my bag

She thanks Ana

It has been in the family for generations.

She dropped the necklace

She promises to be more careful next time

2. Organize the actions.

- A. Ana has found the necklace in her bag.
- B. She has promised to be more careful next time.
- C. Maria has worn the necklace on special occasions.
- D. She has called Ana.
- E. Her brother has helped her look for it.
- F. She has searched the entire house.
- G. Maria has thanked Ana.

H. She has realized the necklace was missing.

Write the order: _____

3. Answer the question by joining the question (column a) and the best option (column b)

COLUMN A

Has Maria lost her grandmother's necklace?

Has Maria searched for the entire house?

Has Ana found the necklace?

Has Maria felt happy about her missing
necklace?

Has Maria's mother
helped to search?

COLUMN B

Yes, she has. Ana has found it.

Yes, she has. She has lost her
necklace

No, she hasn't. she has felt worried

No, she has not. it was her brother

Yes, she has. She has already looked all over the house.

4. Why has the necklace been so important to Maria?

5. What places has Maria searched to find the necklace?

6. How has Ana helped solve the problem?
