UNIT 1: TOURIST PLACES 2

1. Read the definition and write the corresponding word:

a drink made with the juice of lemons, water, and sugar: _____

a beverage that is dispensed from a soda fountain machine: _____

water that has no bubbles or carbonation, often contained in bottles: _____

water melted from ice or with ice added to it: _____

food with a salty or spicy flavor that is not sweet: _____

plant-based food, excluding all products derived from animals: _____

sweet food eaten at the end of a meal: _____

Food that doesn't contain meat, poultry, or fish: _____

a sausage eaten in a bun, often with ketchup or mustard: _____

water that is not cooled or heated: _____

carbonated drinking water: _____

a cold, non-alcoholic beverage, typically sweet, that is usually carbonated and contains flavorings and a sweetener: _____

a thick slice of good quality beef: _____

water comes out of a faucet: _____

2. Complete the following conversations with the appropriate words:

Customer: Good morning! _____ I have a cappuccino, please? Server: Sure. _____ you want it with regular milk or oat milk? Customer: With oat milk, please. _____ you also have any croissants? Server: Yes, we do. We have chocolate and almond. Customer: Great, I'll take an almond croissant. Server: Perfect. _____ this for here or _____go? Customer: To go, please. Server: Alright, I'll _____ right back with your order.	Server: Good evening! _____ you ready to order? Customer: Yes, I am. For the starter, can I _____the soup of the day? Server: Of course. And what _____you like for the main course? Customer: I'll have the grilled chicken with rice. Server: Excellent. Would you like something to drink? Customer: Yes, could I get some water, please? Server: _____or sparkling? Customer: Sparkling water, please.

LIVEWORKSHEETS