

Study with Ms. Hien

Unit 1: Communication

Exercise 1. Choose the correct word:

back sb up – commitment – artefact – argue – account for

– aware – automatic – abroad – bring up – accurate

1. Thousands of Vietnamese students choose to study _____ every year.
2. International students _____ nearly 20% of the total enrolment at this university.
3. Please make sure all figures in your report are completely _____.
4. Some scientists _____ that climate change is mainly caused by human activity.
5. The museum displayed a rare ancient _____ found during the excavation.
6. The doors of the new shopping mall open _____ when customers approach.
7. Are you fully _____ of the dangers of driving at night?
8. Nobody was willing to _____ him _____ when he complained about the unfair policy.
9. Jane was _____ by her grandparents after her parents passed away.
10. His strong _____ to environmental protection impressed the interview panel.

Exercise 2. Multiple Choice:

11. The term "digital native" refers to a person who _____.
 - was born before the Internet existed
 - prefers reading printed books
 - grew up using digital technology
 - rejects technological devices
12. Which expression means "to explain something very clearly"?
 - spell out

Study with Ms. Hien

- B. leave out
- C. pick up on
- D. catch up on

13. A "misinterpretation" is closest in meaning to:

- A. a correct analysis
- B. an incorrect understanding
- C. a reliable explanation
- D. a technical solution

14. If teachers' salaries remained relatively stable, they were:

- A. extremely low
- B. fairly unchanged
- C. suddenly doubled
- D. completely unpredictable

15. Which word describes a person or source you can trust?

- A. essential
- B. reliable
- C. fascinated
- D. concerned

16. The meeting will _____ the company's long-term strategy.

- A. sum up
- B. reflect on
- C. pick up on
- D. pass on

17. "Current affairs" are best described as:

- A. romantic relationships
- B. recent political and social events
- C. historical artefacts
- D. personal commitments

18. If a student "misses out on" an opportunity, he/she:

- A. takes full advantage of it
- B. does not benefit from it
- C. points it out
- D. spells it out

19. A personalised course is one that is _____.

- A. designed for everyone in the same way
- B. created specifically for each individual
- C. concerned only with physical appearance

Study with Ms. Hien

- D. based solely on digital technology
- 20. To "reflect on" your actions means to:
 - A. repeat them automatically
 - B. think carefully about them
 - C. argue against them
 - D. sum them up quickly

Exercise 3. Extended Mini-Scenario Gap Fill

converse – concept – dispiriting – essential – fascination – function – get sth across – leave out – technological – understanding

- 21. During the debate, Minh tried to _____ his key ideas to the audience, but the microphone failed.
- 22. The lecturer explained the _____ of "cultural identity" before starting the case study.
- 23. After failing the driving test twice, she felt a bit _____.
- 24. Daily reading is an _____ part of language learning.
- 25. Some children have a natural _____ with space exploration and dream of becoming astronauts.
- 26. The new smartphone app serves the useful _____ of reminding users to drink water.
- 27. Before the meeting ended, the manager managed to _____ the importance of teamwork.
- 28. Don't forget to _____ any key details in your essay, or you may lose marks.
- 29. This company became successful by investing heavily in _____ innovations.
- 30. After the lecture, students gained a deeper _____ of how economies recover after a recession.