Emma's daily routine

Emma is a British girl. She lives in London with her family in a small house. She is twelve years old and she has got one younger brother, Jack. She usually gets up at seven o'clock. First, she washes her face, brushes her teeth, and gets dressed. At half past seven, she has breakfast. Then she leaves home at eight o'clock and walks to school. Her classes begin at half past eight. She often has lunch at the school canteen at one o'clock. After school, at four o'clock, she goes home. She does her homework and helps her mother cook dinner. At seven o'clock she has dinner with her family. After dinner, Emma sometimes watches TV or reads books. At nine o'clock, she takes a shower and at half past nine, she goes to bed. Her parents always say good night to her.
