

Dear Mum and Dad,

I'm sorry that I haven't written ...to... you earlier. I'm fine and we're (1) an amazing time. This is only a short email because I've got to hurry. There are so (2) things to see here. We've already visited a museum which has gold crowns and strange silver bracelets too. We're going to visit the pyramids today! I'll send you some pictures of us soon and I know you'll like them.

Sarah (3) a good one of me in the desert and another of us all with some camels. I was very excited (4) this is the first time I saw the camels in real life and they looked amazing. See you on Sunday. Our plane will arrive at (5) three o'clock so I'll get my backpack and meet you at the passenger exit at about half-past three.

Lots of love, Alice.
