Hi Ruben,

How are you? I've got a temporary job at that expensive fish restaurant in town. It's a lot of hard work!

We <sup>1</sup>supposed / need to arrive at the restaurant at 11 a.m. and we don't finish until at least 11 p.m. We can't go home when the last customers leave because the kitchen <sup>2</sup>needs / gets to be cleaned before we leave.

The rules for the waiters are pretty strict. We've <sup>3</sup>got / need to wear a uniform and we're not <sup>4</sup>essential / allowed to wear any jewellery. We're <sup>5</sup>permitted / supposed to call the customers 'sir' and 'madam', but I keep forgetting! The other thing is that it's <sup>6</sup>essential / needed to speak good English, so I'm practising a lot.

The customers usually give good tips, but we're <sup>7</sup>not supposed / supposed to keep them! It isn't all bad though. We get all our meals for free and also, we're <sup>8</sup>allowed / can to choose anything on the menu that we want!

Please write soon and tell me your news!

Santi
