- A: OK, so we're going to decide on where to open our new office. ¹ First of all, I need to decide on the location. Then we'll discuss the number of new staff we'll need.
- B/C: OK.
- A: Right. ² on the ideas we have for location. Last time we discussed Cardiff and Bristol, but we need to decide between them.
- B: I ³ Cardiff would be a nicer place for our office. I know it is a smaller city but it is developing fast as an area for small businesses.
- C: Hmm. I'm ⁴ that I agree, actually. I really feel that Bristol would be better. The ⁵ it is that Bristol is much bigger and will give us the most custom.
- A: It's also closer to the main motorways and is only a few hours from London.
- B: That's a ⁶
- A: So, shall we say we'll look into the office we've seen in Bristol?
- B/C: Yes, OK.
- A: Good. So, ⁷ to the next point, how many staff are we going to need?
- C: Hmm. I think to begin with we should employ fifteen people to cover our basic needs.
- B: I'm not sure that's ⁸ We talked about some of our London staff moving to the new office. So, I really feel we should start with less.
- A: I agree. I think ⁹ consider salaries. What about employing five new people first?
- B/C: That's ¹⁰ me.
- A: So, are we all agreed? ¹¹ up what we've decided. We're going to open our new office in Bristol and employ five new members of staff. Is that right?
- B/C: Yes, I think so. That's right.
