

Vocabulary

Types of film

1 Complete each opinion with the type of film it describes. One letter is given.

- I love this film. It's a classic romant i c c o m e d y where two heroes end up falling in love and getting together – after some problems, of course.
- This was a very sad film. Based on real events in the Second World War, it tells the story of a few individuals. In some parts, it felt like a c because it was so realistic.
- I had my eyes closed for most of the film. If you like r, this is the film for you. But I warn you now – there's a lot of blood.
- This was the most exciting t film I've ever seen. It was so fast moving that when the film ended I couldn't believe two hours had passed!
- I don't normally like f, but this was such a beautiful story with lots of princesses, monsters and magic.
- My children loved this t. In fact, I enjoyed it, too. It was very funny in parts.
