Writing a text:

Write a text about your school answering these questions:

1. What would you improve in your school?
2. Why is the improvement needed?
3. How would you do it?

Topic sentence: State your opinion clearly. Use part of the question to begin and then your main reason. Opinion: Yes, students should wear uniforms.

Supporting detail #1: Give your first reason with an explanation or example. Helps students focus.

Supporting detail #2: Give your second reason with an explanation or example. Prevents bullying about clothes.

Concluding Sentence: Restate/paraphrase your opinion in a new way (or summarize the main idea of your paragraph) Uniforms make school a better place.
