

SEQUENCE CONNECTORS

Choose the most appropriate sentence connectors from the options given.

Planting a tree is an important way to help the environment, but it must be done carefully. _____, you need to choose a suitable location where the tree will have enough space and sunlight. _____, dig a hole that is twice as wide as the tree's roots and deep enough for them to grow. _____, place the young tree gently into the hole and make sure it stands straight. _____, cover the roots with soil and press it down firmly so the tree is stable. _____, water the tree generously to help it settle in the ground. _____, add some mulch around the base of the tree to keep the soil moist and cool. _____ tie the tree to a wooden stake if it cannot stand on its own. _____, check the tree regularly and water it every few days, especially during dry weather. _____, protect it from insects or animals that may damage the leaves or bark. _____, caring for the tree consistently will ensure that it grows strong and healthy for many years.

