

Subject vs Object Questions

A. Ask questions about the underlined words.

Example: The manager signed the contract. → Who signed the contract?

1. Mr. Brown was the client's name.
2. We launched a new product last month.
3. Our company launched a new product last month.
4. The CEO called me at 10 a.m. yesterday.
5. The CEO called me at 10 a.m. yesterday .
6. The company opened a new office five years ago.
7. The company opened a new office five years ago.
8. The company opened a new office five years ago .
9. Something went wrong during the negotiation.
10. Our team achieved the sales target last quarter.
11. Our team achieved the sales target last quarter .

B. Write one word in each gap to make a question.

Example: What time does it take you to prepare the presentation?

1. Did _____ affect the delivery schedule?
2. Who _____ you speak to in the meeting this morning?
3. When _____ the company founded?
4. _____ does this report belong to?
5. What _____ this policy mean?
6. What _____ are your colleagues arriving for the conference?
7. Who _____ you want to contact about the contract?
8. Who _____ that manager speaking with our client?
9. _____ did I save the project file?
10. How _____ is it from the office to the client's headquarters?
11. How _____ time do you spend answering emails every day?
12. What _____ of software does your team use?

C. Make questions with who or what.

Example: A client sent me an email. → Who sent you an email?

1. Someone scheduled the meeting for tomorrow.
2. Something went wrong with the presentation.
3. Somebody gave me this report.
4. Something looks important in this contract.
5. Someone told me about the new project.
6. There is something missing in the financial report.	