

WHICH ONE DO YOU LIKE?

Use some of the phrases on the right plus your own ones to describe the food below. Which breakfast would you choose?

- It's gross!
- These things look spicy!
- This is a delicious dish!
- It's a peculiar taste!
- That is just awesome!
- It's weird.
- It has a rotten egg smell.
- It would be too unhealthy!
- It's nutritious!
- It doesn't look like breakfast.
- I'd love to have it for breakfast.

USEFUL VOCABULARY

Here is some useful vocabulary to talk about food and taste. Match the highlighted words to their meanings on the right.

1. This dish doesn't have any taste! It's bland. Can I have salt and pepper, please.
2. She'll be happy with some greasy fried chicken.
3. This lime lemonade is still too sour. It needs more sugar.
4. This dark chocolate is a little bitter, but I prefer milk chocolate, because it is much sweeter.
5. This cucumber is so crunchy and fresh.
6. I've never eaten a raw egg and never will. I eat only cooked food.
7. I think this milk has gone bad; it smells strange.
8. I put too much milk in my cereal, so it's soggy now.
9. A piece of well-cooked meat should be soft, not chewy.

- a) needing to be chewed hard or for some time before being swallowed;
- b) tasteless; flavorless;
- c) making a sharp noise when bitten;
- d) having an acid taste like lemon;
- e) covered with oil;
- f) wet and soft;
- g) (of food) not cooked;
- h) having a sharp taste or smell; not sweet;
- i) to no longer be fresh enough to eat or drink.

CAN YOU GIVE EXAMPLES OF SOME FOOD THAT...

is bland

is greasy

is sour

is bitter

is crunchy

is raw

easily goes bad

is soggy

is chewy

