Reading Comprehension

Read the text and answer the questions.

My school library is a quiet, comfortable place for students. It is located on the first floor next to the sports hall. Many students enjoy spending time there to read, study, or relax.

There is a clean, bright, and peaceful atmosphere in the library. There are round wooden tables and chairs where students can sit to read. There are books neatly arranged on shelves around the room, and there are stacks of books on some tables. There are nine large windows that let sunlight into the room, making it warm and welcoming. There is a globe on a shelf next to a vase, and there are several posters decorating the white walls.

The floor is covered with a soft, brown carpet, which helps keep the room quiet. There are bright lights overhead that ensure every corner of the library is well lit. There is a sense of calm that makes it easy for students to concentrate. There are a few green plants placed on top of the shelves, adding a touch of nature to the space. Overall, this library is an ideal place for learning and reading because there is a peaceful setting that helps students focus on their work.
