Last summer, Mai and her friend decided to go into business together. They opened a small workshop where they could make clothes. To make their designs special, they often embroider flowers on dresses. One day, her new design created a sensation at the local fashion show because it was so unique and exclusive.

Mai's shop offered a variety of products, such as multicoloured scarves, long-lasting jackets and even an award-winning bag. During her holiday, Mai stayed in a log cabin near the mountains, went snorkelling, and later planned to go on safari. She always writes her plans on a big tabletop calendar and eats vitamin-rich food to stay healthy.
