

Exercise 1: Prepositions of Time

1. The art exhibition will be held tomorrow afternoon (in / on / at) 4:00.
2. The safety inspection has been postponed (until / by) next month.
3. Nelson's Book Café has not made a profit (for / during) six months.
4. They will be back from their business trip (in/ on / at) Sunday.
5. Mr. Morris was promoted to chief financial officer (in / on / at) 2010.
6. The food choices for the banquet next Saturday must be sent to the caterer (at / on / by) this Friday.
7. He visits (in / on / at) noon every day except Saturday and Sunday.