

1. We do not special courts for trying juveniles.
2. Under the law every citizen the right to elect and be elected. 3. An accused person the right to be defended by barristers. 4. The witnesses being examined at the moment. 5. The most common sentences in Britain fines, prison and probation. 6. In the UK offenders between 10 and 17 tried by special juvenile courts. 7. Jurors to listen to witnesses for the defense and prosecution before deciding whether the accused guilty or innocent.
8. Magistrates not legally qualified, i.e. they laypersons. 9. Your solicitor will to hire a barrister to argue your case before the court. 10.
Mr. Taylor no proof that she guilty of the theft of confidential documents. 11. The judge just finished summing up the case. 12. After the jury heard the evidence they retired to deliberate on the verdict.