

English Reading & Comprehension Test

Part 1 – About Emma

Read the texts about Emma written by her family and friends. Then answer the questions.

1.

I'm Laura, Emma's older sister. Emma is 13 and I'm 16. She's always curious about everything and asks lots of questions. She spends most of her time drawing or reading. She has a few good friends, and she often invites them over for movie nights. She also loves animals and takes care of our rabbit, Snowy.

2.

I'm James, Emma's father. I work from home, so I see Emma a lot during the day. She's very creative and always full of new ideas. She helps her mother and me with housework and sometimes even cooks dinner. She recently made pasta all by herself. I think she could be a chef one day.

3.

Hi, I'm Ava, Emma's best friend. We go to the same school and sit together in art class. She draws really well and is great at coming up with stories for our projects. She also plays the piano, and we sometimes sing together when she plays. Emma is a bit shy with new people, but once you know her, she's super funny and kind.
