

Click on the mistakes in the following sentences. It can be a word out of place, or the wrong verb tense, or the wrong form of the verb.

1. I went to India several times since childhood.
2. I have told Anna yesterday that I can't come to the party.
3. I have lived in Madrid for three years and I still have not been used to some of their traditions.
4. Dan always has wanted to visit the US ever since he has been a child.
5. No food for me, thanks – I have already eaten.
6. He have grown a beard since I last saw him.
7. I recently completed a three-year degree in accountancy.
8. She didn't write a blog yet, but she already promoted it.
9. I never dyed my hair pink but I has dyed my hair.

After you click "finish" don't close the window, you will work with your classmates to correct the mistakes.