

Complete the sentence

"Ready everyone, now put your _____ on. What is the square root of 144?" asked the teacher.

- a) pull your socks up
- b) glad rags
- c) thinking caps

Complete the sentence

Justin can pass this test, he just needs to _____.

- a) pull his socks up
- b) glad rags
- c) at the drop of a hat

Complete the sentence

I can change my dress quickly. I'll be ready _____.

- a) glad rags
- b) at the drop of a hat
- c) buckle down

Complete the sentence

"Please be quiet! _____!" yelled the babysitter.

- a) Roll your sleeves up
- b) Buckle down
- c) Put a sock in it

Complete the sentence

Shelly has really _____ this term. She's got the highest grades in all the classes.

- a) buckled down
- b) glad rags
- c) put a sock in it

Complete the sentence

Let's celebrate! We've been _____ all year.

- a) working our socks off
- b) glad rags
- c) thinking caps

Complete the sentence

These shoes are so comfortable and they _____.

- a) fit like a glove
- b) working your socks off
- c) buckle down

Complete the sentence

Let's go to that party! Go and put on your _____.

- a) work your socks off
- b) glad rags
- c) pull your socks up

Complete the sentence

Gabbie and Aysha _____ and prepared to finish the school project.

- a) rolled their sleeves up
- b) glad rags
- c) smarty pants

Complete the sentence

Harry can be such a _____ at times.
He thinks he knows everything!

- a) smarty pants
- b) glad rags
- c) roll your sleeves up

