Weekend Plans

Hi, I'm Joel. On Saturday morning I can visit my cousins.

On the bus I can read a comic.

In the afternoon, my sister and I can help in the garden.

On Sunday we can go hiking in the hills.

After lunch, my little sister can learn to swim at the pool.

I can keep a scrapbook and stick photos from the weekend.

We can't build a tree house today because it's raining.

But we can have fun and we can be kind to nature.
