1 - Read the following text about living in a multicultural world.
Use the word in brackets to form a new word that fits into the gap:

In today's interconnected world, _____ (MULTICULTURAL) is not just a reality — it is also a _____ (POWER) opportunity. The presence of _____ (DIVERSITY) cultures, languages, and traditions enrich our communities, schools, and workplaces, offering us a chance to learn from one another and grow together. Diversity is more than variety; it is a _____ (CELEBRATE) of human uniqueness and the courage to embrace differences.

Living in a multicultural society can be _____ (CHALLENGE). It requires us to confront our own biases, question stereotypes, and actively work against prejudice and racism. These challenges, however, are not obstacles—they are invitations to become better _____ (LEADERSHIP), more compassionate citizens, and stronger communities. _____ (TOLERATE) is not passive acceptance; it is an active commitment to understanding, respect, and inclusion.

Immigrants bring with them _____ (ENRICH) experiences, stories of resilience, and perspectives that broaden our worldview. Their journeys often reflect immense _____ (ENCOURAGE) and determination, and their contributions help build vibrant, dynamic societies. When we welcome others with open hearts and minds, we create _____ (CONNECT) that transcend borders and foster _____ (HARMONIOUS).

2 – Complete the text with the right words:

knowledge	future	inclusive	diversity
differences	cultures	connections	traditions

Multiculturalism is essential for building _____ and respectful societies. When people from different _____ live and work together, they bring unique ideas, _____, and perspectives that enrich our communities. This diversity helps us grow intellectually and emotionally, encouraging empathy.

However, living in a multicultural society also requires effort. It means facing challenges like misunderstandings and confronting prejudice. Prejudice often comes from fear or lack of _____, but through education and open dialogue, we can overcome it. Tolerance and respect are key to creating harmony and strong social _____.

By celebrating cultural _____ — through festivals, food, language, and shared stories — we promote unity and understanding. Multiculturalism teaches us that _____ is not a problem to solve, but a strength to embrace. It helps build a world where cooperation, kindness, and mutual respect lead to a more peaceful and enriching _____.
