Language in use: although and therefore

We use although to show contrast and it's followed by a subject and a verb.

Example: Although you are about to be 18 in a couple of months, you can't sign a contract

We use therefore to show the result/effect of an action. It can be used as a transition word in sentences.

Example: There were not good enough candidates. Therefore, they are still accepting applications.

Ex. 4 Choose the right answer:

1. _____ she is beautiful, everybody hates her.
