Last year, I <sup>1</sup>moved to England with my family.
Now I go to school here and things are a little different to school in my country.

In my old school, I <sup>2</sup>_____ a uniform. We all <sup>3</sup>_____ our own clothes – jeans, trainers and sweatshirts. I like my new uniform though – I guess that's because it's something new for me.

I <sup>4</sup>_____ very hard at my old school. I <sup>5</sup>_____ about four hours of homework every day and I often <sup>6</sup>_____ at home on Saturdays and Sundays to study too.

We <sup>7</sup>_____ modern classrooms. There <sup>8</sup>_____ any laptops or computers. We <sup>9</sup>_____ behind desks, <sup>10</sup>_____ to the teacher and <sup>11</sup>_____ notes. In England we do more project work and group work.

So, it's easy here and interesting but I think
I <sup>12</sup>_____ more in my country.
