

adjective complement

Order the sentences according to the correct adjective complement.

prepositional
complement

infinitive
complement

“that” clause
complement

He was pleased that all his plants in the garden had fruits.

He is interested in designing video games.

He is loving to his pets.

Lydia was glad to be living on her own.

Everyone knows that he is the best candidate.

Are you excited to go to France next year?

Geoffrey is afraid of spiders and snakes.

My dog is very sad about me leaving him home alone.

Match the two parts to make logical sentences.

Mom was so happy to sell all of last year's stock.

The company was anxious to all his employees.

The teacher was delighted that they finally got married.

Larry is kind

with her students' progress.