

look back on	look into look up to	look after look over	look forward to
---------------------	---------------------------------------	---------------------------------------	------------------------

1. The police promised to _____ the mysterious disappearance of the funds immediately.
2. I always _____ my older sister because she started her own successful business.
3. We are really _____ the release of the final report next week.
4. Before submitting the essay, please _____ it quickly for any obvious errors.
5. She often _____ her childhood and misses her school days.
6. Could you _____ my dog while I'm on holiday?

come up with	come out	come along	come to terms with come across	come down with

1. The manager asked the team to _____ a new marketing strategy by the end of the day.
2. While cleaning the old drawer, I _____ a rare coin from the 19th century.
3. His new single is expected to _____ next Friday, and the media are already covering it.
4. I felt terrible all day and realised I might _____ the flu.
5. He found it difficult to _____ the fact that he hadn't won the competition.
6. We're having an impromptu party tonight. Do you want to _____?